To Catch A Fish

Excerpts from a poem by Eloisa Greenfield

it takes more than a wish to catch a fish.

you take the hook. you add the bait.

you concentrate and then you wait.

you wait, you wait...but not a bite.

the fish don't have an appetite.

tell them what good bait you've got and how your bait can hit the spot.

this works a whole lot better than a wish if you really want to catch a fish.
